(An ISO 9001: 2008 Certified Institution)

"Education is not preparation for life; Education is life itself" - John Dewey

Heart-warming greetings and regards of love to everyone on behalf of the Josephite family!

We strongly believe that success comes not to those who merely dream, but to those who dare to turn them into reality. Our institution aims to provide confidence and an atmosphere conducive to interactive learning, where a child can tap into the limitless potential and creativity that lies dormant within. We believe in a holistic approach to education and ensure the nurturing of a person as a whole. We seek to lay a firm foundation based on values and ethics which will mould our students into responsible citizens, who will be able to contribute significantly to the betterment of our society.

The exceptional infrastructure at this school both scholastic and extra-curricular, admirably sets the precise ambience to facilitate excellent teaching learning environment. Our school is a place of learning impeccable in its own way, with a vast and aesthetic campus, literary, science and computer laboratories, friendly and professional teachers providing an impressive platform for the overall growth and development of students. With this We wish all the bees, who are going to be the part of our hive, a blessed and successful career.

With gladness and gratitude

Most Rev. Nazarene Soosai General Manager
